Media Accreditation Office
WSIS II Tunis Phase Press Office
Facsimile: +41.22.730.5201

Dear Sir/Madam:

As per the Media Accreditation Procedure for the WSIS II Tunis Phase, we do hereby respectfully request accreditation for Carl Malamud, International Correspondent for our publication. The O'Reilly Network is one of the most popular technology-oriented Internet publications receiving over 25 million page views per month and is updated on a daily basis with contributions from a large number of staff writers and contributing writers. The URL for the O'Reilly Network is <http://www.oreillynet.com/>. The headquarters of O'Reilly Media is located at 1005 Gravenstein Hwy North, Sebastopol, California, 95472, USA.

Carl Malamud, our International Correspondent, has been assigned to cover the WSIS Tunis Phase II Summit. Mr. Malamud is a well-known journalist on the Internet and has frequently made contributions to O'Reilly Media. He is the author of 8 books, has covered the U.S. Congress and the United Nations 50th Anniversary Summit, and was the creator and chief correspondent of "Internet Talk Radio," one of the best-known Internet radio stations. Mr. Malamud has been a frequent contributor to other publications, including InfoWorld, Communications Week, Data Communications, the Bangkok Post, and Network World, among others.

Please let me know if I may provide additional information about our publication or our correspondent. Mr. Malamud is planning to cover the entire summit, including the preliminary activities. In addition to writing, he will be bringing audio/video equipment to record official ceremonies. Your assistance is greatly appreciated.

Bruce Stewart
Editorial Director, O'Reilly Network
